Report from Synod and Synodical

By Rev. J. G. Garth, D. D., Publicity Clerk.

SYNOD

The Synod which met at Greenville, in East Carolina Teachers' College, Sept. 19-21, did two outstanding things. It adopted a program for an Evangelistic Crusade. January through March, appointed a committee to prosecute the program, with Dr. P. D. Miller, chairman, and set Oct. 29 as a Day of Prayer and Humiliation to intercede for world peace and to avoid war for America. It will ask the Governor of the State, the President of the United States, through the General Assembly's Moderator, to set aside the same date for the whole country to pray for peace. This day will also be used to pray for the evangelistic crusade.

Synod was opened with a sermon by the retiring moderator, Rev. W. M. Fairley, D. D., Raeford, and Rev. R. H. Stone, West Jefferson, home missionary, was chosen to succeed Dr. Fairley.

The home was the theme of devotions, conducted by Rev. L. R. Scott, D. D. and Rev. P. H. Gwynn, Ph. D. Synod heard Miss Louise Clanton, president of the Woman's Auxiliary, tell of the work of 408 local auxiliaries with 28,150 members. Besides spiritual work done the women raised $195,546 for all causes.

Religious Education showed improvement in daily vacation schools - 240 with 17,760 pupils, 980 attended training schools, institutes and conferences were held in the nine Presbyteries. Rev. J. O. Mann was re-elected director of Religious Education and Miss Mary Louise Woodson as director of Young People's Work. There are 3,700 Presbyterians in colleges, 1,700 of them in church schools, 2,000 in state colleges. A conference for Religious Educational Workers will be held Nov. 13 and 14 at Steele Creek.

Memorials were read for 11 ministers deceased during the year.

Much of the enthusiasm of synod for the Evangelistic Crusade was created by an address by Rev. J. A. McLean, Richmond, Va., who delivered the same address at Montreat during the General Assembly.

Home Missions showed 90 workers in 200 fields, with an increase in professions over last year of 734. For the fifth time Synod and the nine Presbyteries have paid their obligations in full. Synod raised last year $28,000 and the Presbyteries, $54,000.

A new method of publicity was used to exhibit home missions at the popular meeting by moving pictures of fields and their work. Rev. E. E. Gillespie, D. D., superintendent, hopes to have films for

SYNODICAL

The 27th annual meeting of the Woman's Synodical Auxiliary of North Carolina met Oct. 17-19 at Rutherfordton. There were present 61 eligible to vote as delegates, and about 200 visitors. The outstanding item of the program was the decision to build one unit of the contemplated quadrangle at Barium Springs Orphans' Home. This will cost about $10,000 and the entire project of four units will cost $40,000. Mrs C. E. Raynal, Auxiliary Secretary of the Orphans' Home, says over 1,500 visitors are registered annually. J. B. Johnston, Superintendent of the Home, said the policy now was to accept only children as wards who cannot be kept at home by government funds, or adopted into foster homes. Concord Presbyterial, under the leadership of Mrs. A. Jones Yorke, a new Regent of the Home, has already pledged $1500 for the new building.

Miss Louise Clanton, president of the Auxiliary presided at the meeting.

The Auxiliary gave to all causes last year $195,546, of which $139,748 was for denominational benevolences, $48,831 to local causes, and $6,967 to miscellaneous. Last May, $7,598 was given to the birthday offering for women and girls in Congo. White Cross work showed $1,122 raised besides numerous gifts of hospital supplies, permitting 10 boxes to be sent to China and three to Grace Hospital at Banner Elk.

The Auxiliary had two collections, one for Ministers' Annuity Fund, and one to the Historical Foundation at Montreat. Rev. J. G. Garth, in charge of publicity, announced that the Assembly had authorized a building for the library at Montreat, and that he was engaged in preparing articles for the daily press to present the need of a fireproof home for the books and the museum He also said there were 122 volums of church histories now at Montreat prepared by the women. Mrs. A. J. Howell is Synodical historian.

Mission Court at Richmond, Va., entertained 11 families of missionaries on furlough last year. The Auxiliary donated $1,675 for the upkeep of the home, besides many utilities and repairs.

Mrs. E. F. Reid reported 161 colored women attended the conference at Teachers' College, Winston-Salem, in June sponsored by the Synodical. There had been a growth of 213% in eight years.

All secretaries of causes made reports as did all Presbyterial presidents and chairmen of committees. All officers were re-elected for second terms, except that Mrs. George U. Baucom was made

SYNODICAL WILL RAISE $10,000 FOR A BUILDING

This Effort for One of Four Proposed Units Will Be Started Next January

BY REV. J. G. GARTH
(Special to The Observer

RUTHERFORDTON, Oct. 19.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Synod of North Carolina which has been in session at the Presbyterian Church here since Tuesday, adjourned today at noon to meet in the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington next year.

A recommendation of the Auxiliary executive board read by Miss Louise Clanton of Charlotte, president of the Synodical, was adopted, providing for the construction of a building at Barium Springs Orphans' Home where 313 children are wards of the Synod. It is hoped that the project of a quadrangle, made by four new buildings at the home, each costing $10,000 will be completed when the 50th anniversary is observed in 1941. This project will take the place of the Alexander Cottage now used by Stop! Look! Listen!

Orphanage Work Secretary Says:

By (Mrs. Wade) Agnes Barber, Guest Writer, Orange Presbyterial.

Friends and co-workers of Barium, we are approaching the Thanksgiving season, which is the time for us to turn our hearts and prayers for the three hundred and thirteen fine girls and boys that we have in our care at Barium. Let us be diligent in our work for them.

If your Auxiliary hasn't presented the playlet "Meal-Time at Barium" for its program yet, may you be a committee of one to attend to this, and have displayed in your Auxiliary meeting, Sunday School and Church the layout of the campus at Barium Springs with the pictures of the buildings on it. Each local secretary of Orphanage Work has received this material, and please put it to the most effective use. As you know it is the duty and privilege of each Secretary to further the cause of Barium in the Auxiliary, Sunday School and Church. So please give each member of these three an opportunity to give their offering of thanks to Barium at this time.

Stop to read this message.

Look over the past year and recall all the blessings you have received and give to Barium according to your blessings, and

Listen to the call of our 313 boys and girls and make this the greatest Thanksgiving Offering for Barium Springs Home and may we be blessed in well doing is my prayer.

(Mrs. Wade) Agnes Barber,
Secretary Orphanage Work,
Orange Presbyterial.
Pittsboro, N. C.

Fayetteville Day Here Proves Great Success

October 20th was a most remarkable day at Barium Springs - remarkable because of the fact that 95 people, representing 19 different churches in Fayetteville Presbytery, were on the campus at this Home for a visit of several hours. The shortest distance that any car came that day was in the neighborhood of 100 miles, while some of the visitors drove as much as 200 miles to reach Barium Springs, with a good many cars traveling 150 miles or more.

Throughout Fayetteville Presbyterial this fall there had been linen showers in the eight different districts, and it was truly a veritable shower at the Orphanage when almost every car arriving at Barium started unloading the things which had been given - almost 200

"How Thankful We Are ——"

For over two months the airways have been chogged full of war reports, and prior to the declaration of war in Europe, the ether waves were equally burdened with rumors of war. As American people have sat quietly in their homes and listened to the broadcasts, the subsequent comment and conjectures as to the future, perhaps the most frequent remark in those fireside circles has been, "How thankful we are that we live in America."

As magazine articles recounting the cruelty that has been inflicted upon some minorities have been read and eye-witness accounts have been written of the privation suffered and the persecutions inflicted, that same utterance, "How thankful we are that we live in America" has been the invariable comment of thousands upon thousands of people.

And, as people have gathered about in groups on busy business streets and also discussed the call to colors in some countries and have reflected upon the anguish and poignancy

Good News

In this Thanksgiving issue of The Messenger it is fitting that several good news items are available for friends everywhere, who will rejoice in recent actions that are going to mean considerable to this Home. Here are some things that will make all of Barium's friends very thankful, even as they have been responsible for gladness in the hearts of officials here.

Carthage Sunday School, in Fayetteville Presbytery, has adopted the fifth Sunday offering plan of helping Barium Springs.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the Hamlet Sunday School, in Mecklenburg Presbytery, has voted to send Barium Springs $1.00 every month.

Fairfield Sunday School, in Orange Presbytery, has adopted the Offering-per-month plan and recently reported responses for three months.

The Men's Bible Class of the Lexington First Sunday School, in Winston-Salem Presbytery, has resumed its regular monthly offerings to Barium Springs.

These "good news" items on regular giving to Barium Springs are the first that have appeared in The Messenger in several months, but it is the fond hope here that a similar article will appear in subsequent issues of this paper as other organizations align themselves with the majority in a systematic plan of aiding this Home.

Yadkinville Church Is First to Go Over Top

To Yadkinville Church goes a double distinction in the 1939 Thanksgiving Offering. It was the first of the 540 churches in the North Carolina Synod that gave a 1939 Thanksgiving Offering superior to the 1938 response and it is also the first church to establish a new 15-year peak in its Thanksgiving Offerings to Barium Springs!

All of this happened on a Sunday in October when approximately 25 people visited Barium Springs from Yadkinville, part of the Thanksgiving Offering of 1939 being contributed before they departed. The sum given (and more is to follow) was $25.50, which is 155% more than the $10.00 given by Yadkinville in 1938 and which substantially surpasses the 14-year peak of $19.65, given away back yonder in 1925.

Since additional Thanksgiving Offering is to be made by those who were unable to visit Barium Springs that day it means an even larger percentage of increase over last year's offering and a further enhancement of the already splendid and new 15-year peak.

How many other churches in the Synod are going to establish new 15-year high-water marks in their 1939 Thanksgiving donations to Barium Springs?

"How Thankful We Are——"

of some European peoples and the torn and bleeding hearts of those whose loved ones' lives have been snuffed out, again the utterance has been, "How thankful we are that we live in America."

This note of thanksgiving has been prevalent in these United States down through the ages, since the forefathers of this country succeeded in freeing themselves from ties to the Old Mother Country. There have been years, of course, when the thankful note was somewhat subdued, particularly in those periods of war conflict when dear ones were away fighting and dying in battle, but as America approaches the 1939 Thanksgiving season, the flower of America's manhood is not being presented as cannon fodder for devasting and obliterating war machines.

That manhood is in America today, proceeding in the usual tasks of daily business, daily living and daily pleasures. Truly, "How thankful we are", should be upon the lips of the American people. While a particular day in the year is celebrated as Thanksgiving Day, yet in reality all of the 365 days are days in which thankfulness can be rendered for the many blessings that have been showered upon this country.

Here in the Old North State, friends everywhere of every denomination are given a glorious opportunity to materially voice their thankfulness by making generous Thanksgiving Offerings for their respective Homes in which young boys and girls are being trained, are being given an opportunity in life and are being provided for with the necessities of human existence. Presbyterians in North Carolina have the particular privilege of giving a personal Thanksgiving Offering to the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs. This is a privilege which has been existing for 47 years and within the next two or three weeks, the Presbyterians of this Synod - over 87,000 of them - will be given an opportunity to make an offering, insofar as this can possibly be done in every one of the 540 Churches in the largest Synod of the Southern General Assembly.

The Thanksgiving season of each year is of eminent importance to the Home at Barium Springs, for the magnitude of the giving in the Thanksgiving period is paramount to a successful year's operation. It is an undeniable fact that one-half of the annual donations to Barium Springs are welcomed during the Thanksgiving season. It is an unfortunate circumstance, in one respect, that the Home has to depend upon such a large portion of its contributions at one particular time; yet, in another respect, it is fortunate that this annual intensive effort is made, because this Home at Barium Springs gives so many Presbyterians an outlet for the expression of their personal thanksgiving in the realization that their material manifestations of their thankfulness are going to play an extremely vital part in the welfare of 313 boys and girls who have been entrusted to the care and training of officials, matrons, teachers and other workers at Barium Springs.

What a glorious opportunity presents itself to these 87,000 Presbyterians! What a privilege this is! What a tremendous pleasure will be yours when you make your Thanksgiving Offering! What a personal satisfaction you can experience in helping to take care of this big family! Unending joy, immeasurable happiness and innate satisfaction are some of the things that will accrue to those who give of their means and who will this year, as never before, give vent to their feeling of thankfulness that they are living in America.

In this Thanksgiving season may all of the Presbyterians of North Carolina Synod experience a knowledge of the "beauty and sweetness" that their giving will help make possible as is so appropriately voiced in the poem "The Soul of a Child":

The Soul of a Child is the loveliest flower
That grows in the garden of God.
Its climb is from weakness to knowledge and prayer,
To the sky from the clay and the clod.

To beauty and sweetness it grows under care,
Neglected, 'tis ragged and wild.
'Tis a plant that is tender, but wondrously rare—
The sweet, wistful soul of a child!

Be tender, O gardener, and give it its share
Of moisture, of warmth, and of light.
And let it not lack for thy painstaking care—
To protect it from frost and from blight.

A glad day will come when its bloom shall unfold.
It will seem that an angel has smiled,
Reflecting from it beauty and sweetness untold
In the sensitive soul of a child.

News From Some Of The Cottages

SYNOD'S COTTAGE

Dear Friends,

Here we are again to tell you of the events of the past month.

Circle No. 6 of Mooresville sent us lots of jelly and funny papers. We certainly do thank them.

We have two new boys, Norwin Hilliard and Jerry Young. Malcolm Rogers moved to Alexander.

Circle No. 2 of Trinity Avenue Church in Durham sent us a football. It's certainly lots of fun to play with and we wish to thank you for it.

We have been enjoyng the football games here. We can't hardly wait to play on the varsity.

So long until next month.

—The Synod's Boys

WOMAN'S BUILDING

Hello Friends,

As the time flies by we find it time to write you another synopsis of our last month's happenings.

Since last you heard from us we have been going to a number of football games. We have played six so far, winning three, tieing one, and losing two.

We are all glad to have the 100 and 125-lb teams from Oxford Orphanage with us today. They spent the night with us and they are also going with us this afternoon to see the Davidson-Furman game at Davidson.

We were all invited to the show this week to see Joe E. Brown in "A $1,000 Touchdown". We all enjoyed it very much, and thanks a lot, Mr. Carter.

We have been having a number of visitors here lately to visit with us and we enjoy having them all. We are expecting to have many more to come and see us.

Just three more days until Halowe'en. We'll all be glad because we are planning to have a party. Here's hoping no one gets scared or caught by the spooks.

We haven't had much sickness this fall so far and we are all very thankful. We hope we can keep this record up.

Thelma Robards, Elizabeth Robards and Johnnie Burgin were very glad to have visits from their people. Joyce Weeks also had a visit from her father about two weeks ago.

The sewing room girls have been awfully busy here lately making smocks for the girls to work in.

It will soon be time for us to get our report cards. We are all hoping for the best grades possible to receive.

As we can think of nothing more to say we'll close for this time.

Be looking for us next month because we'll be back with more news.

As ever,

—The Seniors.

October 28, 1939.

BABY COTTAGE

Can you believe it? We have been going to school two months. Although it seems like it was only yesterday we were all wondering what school would be like. Well, we've found out!

We got our report cards yesterday, and we all seem to be learning something. So far Frances Stricklin, Fred Feamster, Jackie Williams and Junior Lybrand have gotten a show ticket for doing such nice work in school. One of our big girls, Louise Martin, also was given one. We hope each time we write to be able to give some names for getting the show ticket.

Our youngest boy is Albert Clough, who is about three years of age. Albert is liked very much by the other children at the Baby Cottage.

We couldn't forget to tell you about our little Hallowe'en party. We played pinning the Donkey's Tail and Jackie Porterfield won the prize. Congratulations, Jackie! Then we tried biting apples off of a string. Most of us succeeded in getting ours. For refreshments we had popcorn, oranges, candy and cookies.

We went to the show to see "A $1,000 Touchdown" with Martha Raye and Joe E. Brown. Thanks for inviting us, Mr. Sams. We enjoyed the picture very much.

Most of our girls and boys were vaccinated last week and our spirits were a little lower than usual. However, we are almost our natural selves again.

We have had a lot of members from the different churches, Sunday Schools, and Auxiliaries visiting us lately. You must all come back again to see us.

A lot of us have had visits from our folks recently, including Helen and Hilda Barnes, Jackie Porterfield, Kazzie Mae Hillard, Jane and Fred Feamster, Carolyn and Mac Wicker, Dwight Reid, Jackie Williams and Kenneth Mayhew. We are glad their folks can come to see them.

We have been seeing a good many football games. Most of them we have seen Barium has been the victor. We are all looking forward to the day when we can play for Barium. You'd better keep an eye on us for we'll be the "best men on the team."

Good Luck!

—The Babies.

ANNIE LOUISE

Since we wrote you last we have been invited to see a show. The name of it was "A $1,000 Touchdown". It was grand and we wish to thank Mr. Carter for inviting us.

Our matron, Mrs. Robinson, is making us some curtains for our living room and we all think they are very pretty.

We have gotten our report cards and most of us made good grades.

Friday we had some football games with Charlotte and we won them all.

We had a pageant here Friday night. All of the Annie Louise girls enjoyed it.

We will leave you until next month.

—Annie Louise Girls

INFIRMARY

It won't be long until Thanksgiving.

We have been celebrating this holiday all month. On Sunday after breakfast, Mr. Johnston has discussed various topics on what we have to be thankful for. These talks have been based on suggestions sent in by us.

Mr. Greenwood and his two football teams from Oxford spent the night with us last week. We were very glad to have them and hope they will pay us another visit.

Mrs. McNatt went with some of her friends to Banner Elk for the week-end. She said the mountains were beautiful in the autumn.

Miss Lackey has some beautiful chrysanthemums. She has sold them here and in Statesville.

Mr. Calhoun's two brothers spent the week-end with us. We were glad to have them.

Walter Mott has returned from the hospital and will be with us for a while.

—Lillie McDonald

Nov. 6. 1939

ALEXANDER

We've been quite busy playing football and doing our regular work.

Several of our boys have had nice trips to football games with Oxford Orphanage, the Children's Home and Gastonia.

Robert Pearson and John Lee have been on the sick list.

We have been making rabbit hollows. Frank Denson is champ, having seven. Miss Long, our kitchen matron, cooks the rabbits we catch for us.

Peanut Landrum has had a visit from his mother. Herman Blue had a visit from his clothing people and received a nice box of clothes.

Mr. Sams invited us to see "A $1,000 Touchdown". Thank you, Mr. Sams.

Thanksgiving is just around the corner and we already talking about Christmas.

We are still looking forward to having our new cottage to live in next winter.

So long until next time.

Report from Synod

all nine Presbyteries. Rev. R. K. Davenport, evangelist, reported 115 professions. Work is done among colored people, the deaf and prison camps by the committee.

Synod adopted a budget of $501,000.00 and apportioned to the nine Presbyteries. Last year reports showed $267,866 for assembly's causes, and $224,296 to Synod's cause, a decrease of $46,000.

There are 313 children in Synod's Orphans' Home at Barium Springs. Last year the church raised $88,474 to support the home and the farm, dairy and other sources of income were responsible for $46,380. Plans were made for an adequate Thanksgiving Offering, and stress laid on the monthly offering from Sunday Schools.

Rev. H. Maxcy Smith, Shanghai, China, missionary for 28 years, said the war is attracting many more to Christianity on account of the faithfulness of the missionaries.

Statistics showed the following figures: Communicants in 540 churches, 86,929, with 371 ministers, 61 candidates, seven new churches organized and two dissolved.

Rev. E. B. Paisley presented the Assembly's Training School, Rev. I. S. McElroy the Bible cause, Rev. H. H. Sweets Ministers' Annuity, Mr. Ernest J. Arnold, N. C. Council of Churches.

Synod set Nov. 19 as the day to wind up gifts to the Ministers' Annuity Fund.

Synod acknowledged with gratitude that the Junior College at Maxton for Men is now free from debt, and authorized raising an endowment of $100,000. All colleges were reported as full of students.

Synod Will Raise $10,000

dairy boys at Barium.

The executive committee proposed that the women raise $10,000 for the first unit at Barium Springs, opening the campaign next spring and finishing it by June 30, 1940. Mrs. C. E. Raynal of Statesville, secretary of Orphans' homes in the Auxiliary, introduced Mrs. A. Jones Yorke of Concord, a Regent of Barium Springs recently appointed by Synod, who has been the instigator of the new buildings. Mrs. Yorke told the women that Concord Presbyterial already had $1,500 subscribed to the new cottage, and she recited an original poem presenting the need of the Alexander Cottage boys.

Mrs. Raynal said 360 Auxiliaries are taking marked interest in Barium home, and that 273 give special gifts. The Auxiliary raised $19,907 last year for Barium Springs. She said there was an average of 150 visitors to the home each month.

Joseph B. Johnston, superintendent of the home, spoke to the Auxiliary. He said that the home now takes as it wards children from underprivileged homes which cannot be aided by Government funds, homes where social conditions, sickness, and other handicaps exist. The children of better homes are adopted by foster parents, he said. He pleaded for a liberal Thanksgiving offering next month.

The above article written by Synod's publicity clerk and which appeared in the state papers on the morning of October 20th was read with gladness and rejoicing by everyone at Barium Springs, and particularly by the boys who now reside at Alexander Cottage. It was also pleasing to hundreds of friends who have visited Barium Springs within the past two or three years and recognized the desperate need of this replacement. This has been reflected in comment in letters which have been received here since the Synodical voted to raise $10,000, beginning next January and concluding as early as possible after that time.

As announced in the October issue of The Messenger, another one of the proposed four units seems assured, and efforts will be made within the next few months to get funds for the other two cottages to complete the quadrangle.

Funds for these buildings are already reaching Barium Springs, even though Synodical's recomdation was that no emphasis be placed upon this until after the Thanksgiving Offering had been taken, in order that nothing would affect a generous response for Barium Springs in the approaching Thanksgiving season. The majority of the gifts that have been received are from individuals, and the sum total in hand is now in the neighborhood of $650.00. After Thanksgiving, special emphasis will be placed upon this project for the 27,530 ladies affiliated with the 403 Auxiliaries in the North Carolina Synodical.

SYNOD	$4,242.21	$250.50	5.2c	23.4c

The Synod of North Carolina enters the Thanksgiving month of November with a net increase of $618.99 over that which had been received at Barium Springs on October 31, 1938. This is divided between a $399.49 increase in the regular giving and $219.50 in the Thanksgiving Offerings for the two years. A better report than this was possible at the end of September, which meant a decrease in October's giving of $242.75 as compared with receipts in October of 1938.

Fayetteville Day Here

sheets, lots of towels, pillow cases, several quilts, etc. In addition, some of the visitors brought canned goods with them. It looked like a real and genuine thanksgiving season in the office at Barium Springs when all of the unloading had been completed. Also, those eight districts took special offerings that were devoted to Barium Springs and these aggregated a little over $101.00 That preceded the arrival of the Fayetteville visitors.

So far as could be deducted from the registration book (some people might have failed to indicate the churches with which they were affilated) the following churches were represented: Bethel, Bethesda, Bluff, Carthage, Church of the Covenant, Comfort, Dunn, Elise, Fayetteville First, Flat Branch, Galatia, Gilmore Memorial, Godwin, Laurinburg, Lillington, Lumberton, Raeford, Shiloh and South Fayetteville.

Well over 25 different groups have visited Barium Springs since August and the number of visitors has gone well beyond the 500 mark in the past three months, with approximately 60 different churches being represented. The Concord Presbyterial Orphanage Secretaries also had a day at Barium Springs and some of the other visitors have come here from Shelby, Central Steel Creek, near Charlotte; Monroe Auxiliary and Young People (two separate parties), Columbus, Cherryville, Hills and Dan River Churches, Graham (two separate circles), Charlotte First, Charlotte Second, Armstrong Memorial Auxiliary, Business Girls' Circle and Young People of Westminster Church in Greensboro (two separate parties); Reynolda Auxiliary in Winston-Salem, Obids, Yadkinville, Asheboro, Huntersville Men's Bible Class, Gastonia First, Salisbury First, Mulberry, near Charlotte; Glenwood Young People from Greensboro, and a good many others in smaller parties who failed to register in the office here.

And, a good many other delegations are already scheduled between now and Thanksgiving Day.

secretary of Christian Social Service. They were installed by Mrs. W. B. Ramsay, past president.

Religious Education showed 240 vacation church schools and 18,000 pupils, and 171 young people's organized work in the churches. Miss Mamie McElwee, long chairman of this cause, was made an honorary life member of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. C. M. Norfleet announced that the next year's birthday gift would be for vacation schools and evangelism among the 6,500,000 children under 15 in the south.

The following made addresses to the auxiliary: Rev. R. H. Stone, Moderator of Synod, Home Missions; Mrs. W. B. Ramsay, Mitchell College; Dr. W. L. Lingle, Davidson College; Evangelism. Dr. P. D. Miller; Mrs. W. M. Fairley, William Black Home at Montreat; Miss Mary Louise Woodson, Religious Education; Rev. F. S. Jones, pastor local church, Ministers' Annuity Fund; Rev. A. R. Craig, Missions in China, and Rev. I. S. McElroy, Bible Cause.

The auxiliary had many seasons of prayer and observed communion led by Rev. F. S. Jones.

The hosts were the local auxiliary aided by the Methodist ladies. Other auxiliaries aiding were Kings Mountain, Belmont, Shelby, Spindale, Machpelah, and Forest City. A visit was made to Chimney Rock.

The next meeting will be in First Church, Wilmington.

The auxiliary has 408 local societies in the nine Presbyterials with 28,750 members.
